Florentine IV

Florentine loves everything beautiful, everything magical that nature has to offer. The name of the new collection couldn't be more appropriate.

The magic of flowers meets effortlessly with a well-kept jungle flair and cultivates a homely, fresh atmosphere.

Natural understatement is very important in the designs, because the delicate plant motifs would never fall into the house so easily. The lilac is enveloped in a gentle mist, while the magnolia impresses as a delicate watercolor.

Things get a little more romantic with motifs in pink and peach yellow, while moss green and dark gray provide great contrasts. And in the background? A subtle textile structure is used, which gives all motif and plain wallpapers in the collection a charming touch, typical of Florentine.

But Florentine can also be a bit exotic! Strong ones Ferns and lush branches grow up to the ceiling and conjure up a fascinating play of colors on the wall. Rosehip red, curry yellow and sage green create a modern look that quickly conjures up a good mood in your own four walls.
